Office of Chief Counsel

Mission

As independent legal counsel to the Internal Revenue Service, the mission of the Office of Chief Counsel is to:

- Provide the correct legal interpretation of the internal revenue laws;
- Represent the Internal Revenue Service in litigation;
- Provide all other legal support for the Internal Revenue Service; and
- Perform these duties in a manner that enhances public confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our nation's tax system.

Instructions for Use

This directory is not to be used in lieu of a written request for advice. Informal advice may be useful if there is insufficient time for requesting a written advisory opinion. You should contact the Branch Chief listed and, if unavailable, then the Assistant Branch Chief.

Bankruptcy issues are assigned based upon the chapter (7, 9, 11, 12 or 13) in which the issue arises, and as set forth in more detail below. Non-bankruptcy issues ar assigned based upon subject and applicable I.R.C. responsibility set forth below.

If you have any comments or suggestions with respect to this directory, please contact the Deputy Assistant Chief Counsel (GL), Peter J. Devlin at (202) 622-3600.

[1] Cases involving issues under Bankruptcy Code Chapter 1, 3 & 5 always arise in Chapter 7, 9, 11, 12 or 13 cases. These will be assigned to the Branch handling 7, 9, 11, 12 or 13 cases based on the type of case in which the issue arises. Likewise, when an advisory opinion involves an issue which arises in a Chapter 13 case, that would be assigned to Branch 3, even if it is a BC Section 362 issue. However, when a general question arises concerning a bankruptcy issue and no case or type of case is involved, e.g., does automatic stay apply to administrative disciplinary proceedings against employees, it will be assigned to Branch 2.

Call Inspection in the event of a bomb threat.

SUSPECT PACKAGE ALERT

A suspicious package is an object, regardless of its appearance, that is out of place. Only employees working in the area know what is a suspicious object for that area. If you find a suspicious package, notify a manager immediately. The manager will contact the appropriate authorities. Do not touch the package. Do not set off a fire alarm. Do not use a walkie talkie.

Call Inspection if you find a suspicious package.

Is addressee familiar with name and address of sender?

Package/letter has no return address.

Is addressee expecting package/letter? If so, verify expected contents.

Improper or incorrect title, address, or spelling of name or address.

Title but no name.

Wrong title with name.

Handwritten or poorly typed address.

Misspelling of common words.

Return address and postmark are not from the same area.

Stamps (sometimes excessive postage, unusual stamps) versus metered material.

Special handling instructions on package (i.e., special delivery, open by addressee only, foreign mail, air mail, etc.).

Restrictive markings such as confidential, personal, etc.

Overwrapped, excessive securing material such as masking tape, string or wrappings.

Oddly shaped or unevenly weighted packages.

Lumpy or rigid envelopes (stiffer than normal, heavier than normal, etc.).

Lopsided or uneven envelopes.

Oily stains or discolorations.

Strange odors.

Protruding wire or tin foil.

Visual distractions (drawings, unusual statements, hand drawn postage, etc.)

Please be advised that this is a general checklist. The best protection is personal contact with the sender.
